

International

Diamond Approach® in Italy

International Diamond Approach in Italy a new group forming and currently accepting applications. Interested individuals are invited to apply now. The teaching is in English, and follows the Diamond Heart teaching format as is taught throughout the world. Current members of the group come from 15 countries throughout greater Europe. The group meets in Northern Italy at Santuario Il Carmine, on the shore of Lake Garda, 1 hour from Verona, 2 hours east of Milan and 5 hours south of Munich. www.carminesanfelice.it

GROUP FORMAT includes two -7 day retreats each year offered in the spring and fall, as well as, interim meetings between retreats. The interim meeting format of interactive online webinars provides a unique opportunity to engage and support ongoing study and inquiry practice.

UPCOMING RETREATS:

April 28 - May 5, 2016

Teachers:

Janel Ensler, has been a student in the Ridhwan School for 33 years. Janel enjoys leading groups in Germany, Italy and the United States, since 1991. As Director of the Ridhwan Foundation, she was instrumental in establishing the Diamond Approach in Europe. Contact: jtensler@earthlink.net

To apply or to receive additional information regarding IDAI, please contact us at: jtensler@earthlink.net.

For more information about the Diamond Approach visit: www.ahalmaas.com